Chief, WH	CLASSIFICATION			PROCESSING
Chief, TH A	DISPATCH	3-B-C-R-E-T	PRO-	ACTIO	N	ACCOM
Chief, WH AND RECOUNTS AND MANDEST There are also complications. Among the items accounted for by NEWFOLTH was marked to the university election campaign. However, they have no interest in a continuing subsidy. This possibly accounts for the appeal through . However, they have no interest in a continuing subsidy. This possibly accounts for the niversity election campaign. However, they have no interest in a contact with a contact with a subsided in the situation and are able to make a judgment. 2. In general, we agree with the opinion of the Buenos Aires Headquarters deak that this magazine is of marginal interest to us. Specifically, in addition to the comments made by the deak, an examination of the content of the magazine convinces us that it is a thoroughly militant right-wing Catholic Action publication. There is a sufficient quantity of such propaganda material available in Buenos Aires. 3. There are also complications. Among the items accounted for by NUWOLF when the final accounting for our support to the university campaign was made by them was the indication that some of our funds were spent in support of "Frologo." AUWOLF believed the magazine useful when it was necessary to mount a considerable volume of propaganda in the university election campaign. However, they have no interest in a continuing subsidy. This possibly accounts for the appeal through of the group also maintains contact with	0.0.7		POSED	MARKED FOR INDEXES	10
Subsidy to Magazine "Frologo" NECOURSE ASSESSED AND ASSESSED AS	Chiaf WH		- XX
Dubsidy to Magazine "Prologo" Reference: HAEW-7689 1. Reply to Reference has been delayed because the subject required more than the ordinary amount of cross-checking. Because of the nature of the sponsor, we desired to check our possible interest or involvement through our various contacts among refugee groups in Buenos Aires. We finally found they were not concerned with the magazine. However, it developed that the local promoters of this publication were in contact with NUWOLF. It also developed that the promoters of "Prologo" were in contact with Numolf. It also developed that the promoters of "Prologo" were in contact with Numolf. It also developed that the promoters of "Prologo" were in contact with Numolf. It also developed that the promoters of "Prologo" were in contact with Numolf. It also developed that the promoters of "Prologo" were in contact with Numolf. It also developed that the promoters of "Prologo" were in contact with Numolf. It also developed that the promoters of "Prologo" were in contact with Numolf Haddition and are able to make a judgment. 2. In general, we agree with the opinion of the Euenos Aires Headquarters deak that this magazine is of marginal interest to us. Specifically, in addition to the comments made by the deak, an examination of the content of the magazine convinces us that it is a thoroughly militant right-wing Catholic Action publication. There is a sufficient quantity of such propaganda material available in Buenos Aires. 3. There are also complications. Among the items accounted for by NUWOLF when the final accounting for our support to the university campaign was made by them was the indication that some of our funds were spent in support of "Prologo." NUWOLF believed the magazine useful when it was necessary to mount a considerable volume of propaganda in the university election campaign. However, they have no interest in a continuing subsidy. This possibly accounts for the appeal through our own of the propaganda in the languard propaganda in the languard p	Ourer, "H			ONLY QUALIFIED
Reference: HAEW-7689 1. Reply to Reference has been delayed because the subject required more than the ordinary amount of cross-checking. Because of the nature of the sponsor, we desired to check our possible interest or involvement through our various contacts among refugee groups in Buenos Aires. We finally found they were not concerned with the magazine. However, it developed that the local promoters of this publication were in contact with KUWOLF. It also developed that the promoters of "Frologo" were in contact with We now believe that we have sorted out the situation and are able to make a judgment. 2. In general, we agree with the opinion of the Buenos Aires Headquarters desk that this magazine is of marginal interest to us. Specifically, in addition to the comments made by the desk, an examination of the content of the magazine convinces us that it is a thoroughly militant right-wing Catholic Action publication. There is a sufficient quantity of such propagands material available in Buenos Aires. 3. There are also complications. Among the items accounted for by KUWOLF when the final accounting for our support to the university campaign was made by them was the indication that some of our funds were spent in support of "Frologo." KUWOLF believed the magazine useful when it was necessary to mount a considerable volume of propaganda in the university election campaign. However, they have no interest in a continuing subsidy. This possibly accounts for the appeal through which group also maintains contact with		_
Subsidy to Magazine "Prologo" 1. Reply to Reference has been delayed because the subject required more than the ordinary amount of cross-checking. Because of the nature of the sponsor, we desired to check our possible interest or involvement through our various contacts among refugee groups in Buenos Aires. We finally found they were not concerned with the magazine. However, it developed that the local promoters of this publication were in contact with [7 (11)		ABSTRACT
Reference: HAE#-7689 1. Reply to Reference has been delayed because the subject required more than the ordinary amount of cross-checking. Because of the nature of the sponsor, we desired to check our possible interest or involvement through our various contacts among refugee groups in Buenos Aires. We finally found they were not concerned with the magazine. However, it developed that the local promoters of this publication were in contact with [1] we now believe that we have sorted out the cituation and are able to make a judgment. 2. In general, we agree with the opinion of the Buenos Aires Headquarters desk that this magazine is of marginal interest to us. Specifically, in addition to the comments made by the desk, an examination of the content of the magazine convinces us that it is a thoroughly militant right-wing Catholic Action publication. There is a sufficient quantity of such propaganda material available in Euenos Aires. 3. There are also complications. Among the items accounted for by [KUWOLF when the final accounting for our support to the university campaign was made by them was the indication that some of our funds were spent in support of "Frologo." [KUWOLF believed the magazine useful when it was necessary to mount a considerable volume of propaganda in the university election campaign. However, they have no interest in a continuing subsidy. This possibly accounts for the appeal through [April 63] 23 Apr 63				MICROFILM
1. Reply to Reference has been delayed because the subject required more than the ordinary amount of cross-checking. Because of the nature of the sponsor, we desired to check our possible interest or involvement through our various contacts among refugee groups in Buenos Aires. We finally found they were not concerned with the magazine. However, it developed that the local promoters of this publication were in contact with [NUWOLF. It also developed that the promoters of "Trologo" were in contact with []. We now believe that we have sorted out the situation and are able to make a judgment. 2. In general, we agree with the opinion of the Buenos Aires Headquarters deak that this magazine is of marginal interest to us. Specifically, in addition to the comments made by the desk, an examination of the content of the magazine convinces us that it is a thoroughly militant right-wing Catholic Action publication. There is a sufficient quantity of such propaganda material available in Euenos Aires. 3. There are also complications. Among the items accounted for by [KUWOLF when the final accounting for our support to the university campaign was made by them was the indication that some of our funds were spent in support of "Frologo." [KUWOLF believed the magazine useful when it was necessary to mount a considerable volume of propaganda in the university election campaign. However, they have no interest in a continuing subsidy. This possibly accounts for the appeal through [DATE DISSINCHED	co Subsidy to Magazine	"Prólogo"
1. Reply to Reference has been delayed because the subject required more than the ordinary amount of cross-checking. Because of the nature of the sponsor, we desired to check our possible interest or involvement through our various contacts among refugee groups in Buenos Aires. We finally found they were not concerned with the magazine. However, it developed that the local promoters of this publication were in contact with KUWOLF. It also developed that the promoters of "Trologo" were in contact with he situation and are able to make a judgment. 2. In general, we agree with the opinion of the Buenos Aires Headquerters desk that this magazine is of marginal interest to us. Specifically, in addition to the comments made by the desk, an examination of the content of the magazine convinces us that it is a thoroughly militant right-wing Catholic Action publication. There is a sufficient quantity of such propaganda material available in Buenos Aires. 3. There are also complications. Among the items accounted for by KUWOLF when the final accounting for our support to the university campaign was made by them was the indication that some of our funds were spent in support of "Trologo." KUWOLF believed the magazine useful when it was necessary to mount a considerable volume of propaganda in the university election campaign. However, they have no interest in a continuing subsidy. This possibly accounts for the appeal through , which group also maintains contact with	N REQUIRED - REFERENCES of the nature of the sponsor, we desired to check our possible interest or involvement through our various contacts among refugee groups in Buenos Aires. We finally found they were not concerned with the magazine. However, it developed that the local promoters of this publication were in contact with	Reference: HABW-768	9 for by	refugee groups in Bue concerned with the male local promoters of the KUWOLF. It also deven in contact with a situation and are selected as a specifically desk, an examination that it is a thorough publication. There	enos Aires. We fina agazine. However, i his publication were eloped that the promote able to make a jud we agree with the cesk that this magazi, in addition to the of the content of the hly militant right-wis a sufficient quant	t develoe in controlers of that was gment. pinion of comment in magazing Cath	d they we ped that act with "Prologo e have so f the Rue marginal s made by ine conviolic Acti	the "were rted or inter the noes u	ut est
CROSS REFERENCE TO CROSS REFERENCE TO DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NUMBER	for by	WCLF when the final mpaign was made by the distriction was made by the distriction of the magazine considerable volume campaign. However, this possibly acc	accountinem was port of useful wo of propthey have	ng for ou the indic "Frólogo. hen it wa aganda in e no inte r the app	r supposition " is the rest in eal	ort
CROSS REFERENCE TO DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NUMBER			DATE T	YPED	DATE DISPATCH	-(ED)
CROSS REFERENCE TO DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NUMBER			D3 4	nmil 63	O2 4	6-5
	_					03
TAPA - 7-2 COO	!	CROSS REFERENCE TO	DISPAT	CH SYMBOL AND NUM	WRFH.
	· ·
HEADQUARTERS FILE NUMBER	from -		L	BA-12,090

CLASSIFICATION

3-13-U-R-E-T

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY SOURCES METHODS EXEMPTION 3828 VAZIWAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT DATE 2007

4-126-29/3

♦ same

•)
CONTINUATION OF DISPATCH	classification	DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NUMBER
operation has been thus had to conside program. magazine is not an movement with which desire to support a	Operation has been repeated for the last several months. We thus had to consider such requests in the context of our overall program. We have come to the conclusion that the magazine is not an integral part of our support to the student movement with which we work through , and we do not desire to support an activity discontinued by //KUWOLF through our unilateral contact with
4. Because of for this magazine i unilaterally.	the above, we do not wing the Buenos Aires either the	ish to provide funds brough liaison or
	END OF DISPATCH
Distribution:
3 - Chief, WH 3 - Files
C. Jean	•
		i.
· ·
		·
FORM 5-80 530 USE PREVIOUS EDITION.	CLASSIFICATION	PAGE NO.				